

Castello Banfi of Montalcino (Tuscany) and Vigne Regale [Regal Vines] of Strevi (Piedmont) are family owned and operated by John and Harry Mariani and their heirs, Christina Mariani-May and James Mariani. The families include several Cornell graduates.

"Banfi" was the maiden name of their great-great aunt who headed the household of scholarly Pope Pius XI, and taught the appreciation of fine wine as one of nature's most wholesome foods.

Since its founding in 1919, Banfi Vintners has grown to become the leading imported wine merchant of the U.S.A. Education, dedication and discipline are responsible for its success.

Among the numerous honors accorded:

11 Consecutive Years ~ Italy's Premier Vineyard Estate (VinItaly)

VinItaly International Award 2009 as Foremost Ambassador for Excellence in Italian Winemaking

First winery in the world to be awarded International Recognition for Exceptional Environmental, Ethical and Social Responsibility

The Banfi Chair of Wine and Food Appreciation, established under former Professor Vance Christian, is currently held by Professor Steven Mutkoski.
